Mr. M. Q. Chappell went to Waterloo Sunday to see his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Thompson, (Miss Jennie Mae) but found that she had been taken to Hot Springs, N. C., for treatment, having pella. Mr. Chappell hasn't heard from her since his return to Newberry. In this connection the following is from the Laurens Advertiser, 16th: "Dr. and Mrs. W. C. He'll manage to live, the Williams and the Blease blood in him will do that; as for the "move," that depends on how lively his customers will make him step around and the indications are that he and his customers will make it all right.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Haven't heard much of small-pox lately.

The State Sunday school normal meets in Newberry next week.

Pellagra is becoming common all over the country to people of all classes and conditions.

Ex-Deputy Sheriff Pope L. Buford says he wants you to meet him at the West-Martin store.

The regular meeting of the Civic association will be held on Monday afternoon, July 21, at 6 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. H. L. Parr.

It is about time to know who is to be postmaster, so that if Mr. Hill is, the county will want to know who will be the next supervisor.

There was a jammed house at the Airdome Wednesday night. Turn out Friday night. That's always a good time.

Probate Judge Schumpert issued a marriage license Friday to Mr. W. L. Goodman, of Vaughnville, and Miss Estelle King, of Saluda county.

The old court house is still "on the square" with its moving picture show giving the universal satisfaction that was given at first and has been maintained.

Through Mower's garage Messrs. J. A. Burton and A. L. Coleman, the latter of Saluda county, have just possessed themselves of a Studebaker 25 touring car apiece.

The dancing school is progressing nicely. Send your little children. You know how you enjoyed it when you were children, "when you and I were young, Maggie," and when everything was sweet, "Down by the little running brook," and everywhere else.

Dying Tuesday at her home in No. 8 township at the advanced age of 93 years Susan Davenport, colored, leaves four children, 36 grandchildren and 63 great-grandchildren. This is a remarkable record.

As Dillon is crowing loudly about her ball team and thinks she can lick any team in the State, throwing out a defy to any and every thing, suppose she tries to arrange meetings with Newberry. Newberry is on the map and will interest Dillon.

Hookworms are flourishing in the upper section of the county, according to a statement made today by Dr. L. A. Riser, a special agent of the State board of health, who will conduct a campaign in this county for the eradication of the hookworm.—Greenville Piedmont, 16th.

On the program for the Newberry county S. S. convention to be held August 7 and 8 we notice the names of Rev. O. G. Davis, Dr. W. C. Brown, Mrs. M. A. Carlisle, Mrs. H. L. Parr, George D. Brown, R. G. Wallace and John C. Neel.—A. R. Presbyterian, All A. R. P's, eh?

Here look, see you, Mr. Charlie E. Summer, why in thunderation and lightning bugs don't you call that meeting of autoists before the editor says "The Idler" onto you? If "The Idler" ever gets onto you you will find whether your hide has any elephant in it or not.

The probate judge granted a marriage license Tuesday to Mr. A. G. Padgett, of Hillsboro, Texas; and Miss Annie E. Taylor, of Leesville. They were married the same day by the Rev. E. Pendleton Jones. That was romantic. A Texas man and his Leesville sweetheart meet in Newberry to get married.

Those were good pictures at the Arcade Wednesday afternoon, and if you didn't see them you missed a great treat; but there was a good crowd present to enjoy them. That house has never before been conducted in Newberry as it is being conducted today. Long live the Arcade Airdome to amuse and instruct the people with fine pictures generally.

Upwards of 300 persons composed a party of excursionists from the Sunday schools of Trinity Methodist church and Smyrna Presbyterian church in Floyd township, Newberry county, who spent yesterday in Columbia. The visitors had their dinner in picnic style at Hyatt Park and afterward saw the sights of the city.—The State, 16th.

That young girl who was fined $25 in the mayor's court in Richmond for "indecent exposure in wearing a slit skirt" must have felt "awful," not so much because of the $25 as the "indecent exposure" part of it. Think of a young girl appearing thus before Recorder Earhardt! But there is no danger of such as that in Newberry.

You can't please everybody at the same time.—Greenwood Journal. No, but those you displease today you please tomorrow and those you please today you displease tomorrow. So "please or displease, what will please you better?" Nobody knows better than a reporter that "we have done those things we ought not to have done and left undone those things we ought to have done," according to other people.

The fire Tuesday afternoon about a quarter to two o'clock was a blaze on the roof of one of Mr. C. C. Davis' tenant houses, unoccupied, across the alleyway from Mr. Davis' residential premises. It was supposedly, caught from sparks of a passing engine, the house being near the railroad tracks in gravel town. The firemen got there alright as usual, prepared to do the customary good work, but the "bucket brigade" was on hand and had "outened" it. It damaged about 200 shingles.

A most remarkable and liberal settlement was that made in the case of the late S. P. Rhoden of the tribe of Red Men who died recently at his home in Newberry. Mr. Rhoden, was reinstated as a member about 30 days before his death. On the 6th of June he applied for membership in the Western Funeral Benefit association, of St. Louis, Mo. His certificate was written on the 9th of June. He was buried on the first of July. Through the prompt and successful efforts of Mr. O. Klettner the company has forwarded to Mrs. Rhoden a check for $200. This is quick work and good work.

The Newberry Pool Parlor has changed hands, Mr. Claude H. Williams coming from Columbia and taking charge of the establishment as owner and manager. Mr. James G. Brown has been manager there for the past nineteen months. He hasn't told the reporter what he intends doing, but everybody acquainted with the place knows what he has done, pleased the former owner and proprietor and satisfied the crowd patronizing the house. He goes out with the good will and friendship of all. The new proprietor and manager has a good business stand and has the chance to be "popular like Jim Brown" if he fixes coca cola just according to the Brown Standard. And it is believed he will.

Who in Newberry Does This?

Spartanburg Journal.

It is amusing to watch a little girl who is conscious that she is pretty, but when a married woman never for a moment forgets, when she is on parade, that she is exceedingly handsome and that observed of all, one feels like saying bad words.

The Gospel Truth.

Spartanburg Journal.
A man may not say long prayers and utter fervent Amens in the church, but he is pretty close to the kingdom of heaven when he puts one on the "downs and outs" to work and develops the genuine manhood in him.

"Politics Is Funny."

Gaffney Ledger.
Politics is funny. Col. Elbert H. Aull was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of the county superintendent of education of Newberry. He was already in love with educational work and desired to be of some service to the people of Newberry. He made them an excellent superintendent. The love of the work lingering in his breast prompted him to offer for the office at the last election. He was beaten. This, to our minds, is an indication that the people of Newberry really did not appreciate the services of a man who desired to fill an office for the good he might accomplish.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, William Hairston and Herman Eddy, both of whom lived with her. She was the daughter of the late Gus Mason, who lived near the Laurens line, and was the widow of the late Dorroh Hairston when she married Mr. Eddy. She is survived also by three sisters—Mrs. John Gary, of near Goldville, Mrs. Sam Gary and Miss Della Mason, of near Whitmire, and one brother, Mr. Wm. M. Mason, of Clinton. Mrs. Eddy was a Christian woman, truly a good woman, devoted wife, mother and sister, and neighbor and friend.

Two Irishmen recently died, aged 119 and 120. The former smoked the latter did not. See what an end smoking may bring you to.

It Made a Difference.

"The only thing I find to say against you, Jane, is that your washing bill is far too extravagant. Last week you had six blouses in the wash. Why, my own daughter never sends more than two."

"Ah, that may be, mum," replied Jane, "but I 'ave to! Your daughter's sweetheart is a bank clerk, while my young man is a chimney sweep. It makes a difference, mum."
